

HELLO
Broadway,

BROADWAY'S
ONLINE ACADEMY

WHAT'S HOLDING YOU BACK?

“I don't think I can afford Hello Broadway.”

We hear you. Training for your dreams is an investment. And we firmly believe in running full speed towards your dream no matter what it takes.

SYDNEY WAS ALSO WORRIED ABOUT BEING ABLE TO FINANCE HER TRAINING.

But Sydney chose to see this obstacle as an opportunity and not a roadblock.

As a result, she became an entrepreneur!

She now owns her own soap business, and let us tell you...she is not messing around!

"I now sell homemade soaps! I use this money to pay for my Hello Broadway training. I also mow lawns in the summertime! Any money I can't fundraise, I spend my own gift money from birthdays and holidays. I now have the confidence and skills for college auditions this year!"

—SYDNEY

ARE YOU READY TO COMMIT TO YOUR TRAINING IN HELLO BROADWAY BUT NEED TO FIND THE MONEY TO DO IT?

Set aside 10-15 minutes to really ask yourself the following questions:

— What are some things I am currently spending money on that I can sacrifice in order to help finance my training?

— What are 3 additional talents I have that could be a potential business and way to help pay for my training?

IF YOU ARE STILL HAVING TROUBLE THINKING ABOUT WAYS TO FINANCE HELLO BROADWAY, GO TO THE NEXT PAGE FOR SOME MORE IDEAS!

10 FUNDRAISING IDEAS FOR GETTING TO HELLO BROADWAY

Give a Benefit Concert

One way to show your friends, family, and community how much this dream means to you is by sharing your gift. Reach out to your local dance studio or church and ask to give a benefit concert with your friends on your program as well. One student last year raised her entire Gathered tuition by doing one benefit concert at her studio!

Sell Old Clothing

Old clothing can easily be sold using consignment apps. There are also stores that will buy old clothing for cash!

Crowd Fundraising

Websites such as Kickstarter give people the opportunity to donate. Create an exciting narrative that will tell your friends and family how important this experience is, encouraging them to donate to help you make it possible!

Family Ask Letters

Write handwritten letters to your family members and community arts leaders! Explain the amazing opportunities that The Broadway Collective can provide and ask them to help!

Babysitting Services

Talk to your neighbors with young children about babysitting! This is an easy way to make some good money!

Pet Services

Pets need services too! Offer to walk pets or watch pets when your neighbors are leaving town for vacation! Every penny adds up!

Teach a Group Fitness Class

Many people are looking for new ways to get in shape. Use your dance and coaching skills to lead a group fitness class! You can start with your neighbors. Dance party anyone?

Hold a Yard Sale

Find all of those old items that are taking up space in your closet. A yard sale is an excellent way to get rid of old stuff and make some money!

Car Wash

Washing cars is an easy way to fundraise for this special experience! Plan to wash cars on a warm, sunny day at a location with many cars driving by!

10

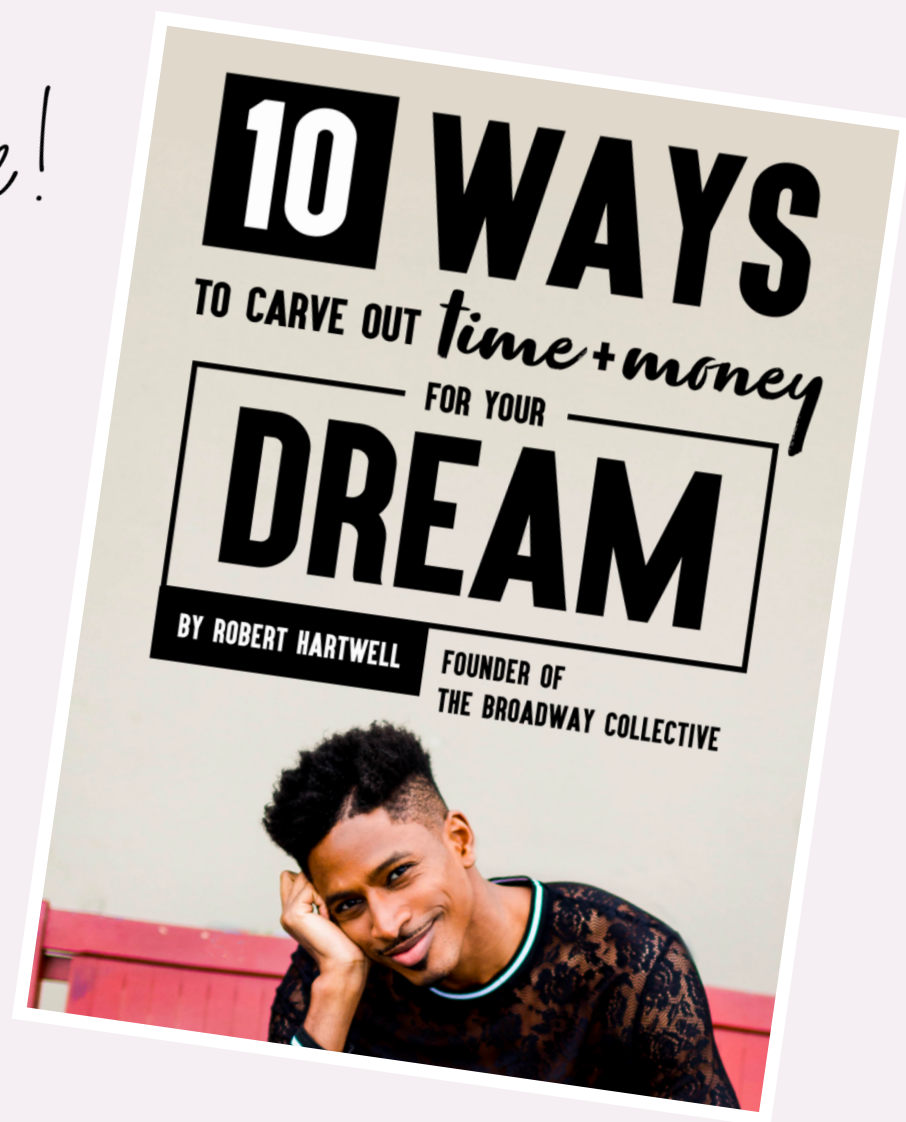

Bake Sale

Everyone loves sweets! Bake some nice treats and sell them to raise funds! You can do this in your neighborhood or you can work with a local organization to see if they will let you sell baked goods at one of their events!

what parents say

"Hello Broadway pushed Susan to deliver three monologues in one self-tape, including Shakespeare. I was doubtful! But wow. I was so impressed by the work that Susan put in to prepare and push through, and then I found myself lost in the moment. I forgot that it was her, and that this was an assignment. I got choked up by an emotional moment, and laughed, and was completely pulled into the characters she created."

AMY, PARENT

"It is a lifetime investment in your child's future. Hello Broadway is more than a program, it is a family of people that understand your child's love for musical theatre. They will love and challenge your child more than any other program."

ELAINE, PARENT

"The Broadway Collective gave Bella the confidence to audition outside of school for Broadway and Off-Broadway productions, and she was cast in both of the Off-Broadway shows she auditioned for."

GARY, PARENT

"Joseph had minimal formal training in Dance and Singing and none in Acting. The Broadway Collective has filled all the holes and honed Joseph's skills so much so that he was cast in several musicals as lead characters!"

JOANGELI, PARENT

"This business requires Olympic level preparedness and training in order to succeed. The Broadway Collective provides training that can get performers to that skill level, along with the physical and mental readiness needed to thrive in this competitive world."

ERIN, PARENT

"Training at The Broadway Collective has changed my daughter's life. Not only did it give her the direction she needed to put her on the right trajectory towards her goals, it made her even more committed to this career."

SARA, PARENT

"Training at The Broadway Collective has changed Abby as a person. She has gained a whole lot of confidence in her training and herself. She used to be afraid to put herself out there. She now knows she has to show up!"

LISA, PARENT

Jack got caught up on his skills and got into a BFA program!

JACK SAYS:

“Hello Broadway taught me the importance of consistency and how to manage a heavy workload. This has allowed me to continue to be a better artist by knowing how to put in the work at home every single week. I even got into my dream college!”

STUDENT WINS

TJ booked his first Regional theatre production!

TJ SAYS:

“Hello Broadway has helped me realize who I want to be and taught me how to trust in myself! I used to lack confidence but now I know that I have to trust in the process and be okay with where I am but also continue to work to be better.”

Ellie landed the lead role at her local theatre!

ELLIE SAYS:

“Training in Hello Broadway has improved my time management and provided me with feedback and mentorship that I can apply to all aspects of my daily life. I have truly seen the work start to work and my confidence has grown tremendously.”

STUDENT WINS

Bailey was accepted into 6 musical Theatre College programs!

BAILEY SAYS:

“Before Hello Broadway, I was lacking a lot of confidence and was not using the training and skills that I knew I once had. Hello Broadway helped me gain back that confidence and help me grow as a performer.“

Hunter was accepted into 12 Musical Theatre college programs!

HUNTER SAYS:

“I knew that if I did not improve with my choreography retention, I would not get into the colleges I desired. So I loved the idea of getting a different piece of choreography every single month in Hello Broadway! My success in my college auditions I greatly attribute to the skills I learned through Hello Broadway.”
